Sequencing

Write numbers 1-5 next to these sentences to put them in the correct order.

As Charlie made her way through the snow, the giant's arms stretched across her path.

The next morning Charlie opened the curtains and the whole world was white.

Charlie scored a goal so she and her brothers went through to the final.

Mum prepared a celebration tea with snowball meringues, popcorn snowflakes and a white cake decorated like a football pitch.

The road was blocked so Bobby had to sleep at school.

True or False

Charlie's mother wanted to have enough children for a five-a-side team.

Kevin's team were not allowed to wear skates for the match.

The giant turned out to be a scarecrow.

The children's secret weapon was spiked running shoes that Wembley had borrowed.

Charlie's free kick gave them the opportunity to win the trophy.

Ed's Poetry

In a rap poem, rhythm and rhyme are spoken over a strong beat. Complete this poem that Ed has started for you. Try clapping it or tapping it out with your fingers.

Football Rap

I like football and I'm gonna be a star,
You watch me 'cos I'm gonna go far.

When you have finished your poem you could read it to a friend or learn and recite it.

Ed would enjoy reading your poem. You could email your poem to him.
