Ed's Poetry

Limericks have five lines. Lines 1, 2 and 5 rhyme with each other and consist of seven to ten syllables; lines 3 and 4 also rhyme with each other and consist of five to seven syllables. This form of poetry is thought to come from the Irish town of Limerick. Limericks are usually amusing!

Ed has written a limerick about ghosts.

There once was a frightening ghost
Who soon became dead as a post.
His job was to scare,
But the occasions were rare,
So he was fired from his post as a ghost.

Now write a limerick of your own about ghosts or any of the characters in this book.

When you have finished your poem you could read it to a friend or learn and recite it.

Ed would enjoy reading your poem. You could email your poem to him.
